TRAINING PROGRAMS

FATHERHOOD DEVELOPMENT

We provide information, services and products for all fathers at all stages of the journey. The Fathers Club, a weekly workshop series, provides solutions in a group setting. Daddy University provides an online parenting education

PARENTING DEVELOPMENT

We service the whole parent community through workshops, training sessions, keynote addresses, resources, and collaboration.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT

We train teachers, corporations, and professionals in all fields on how parenting affects their environment and profit share.

ANNUAL EVENTS

NATIONAL FATHER FESTIVAL (NFF)

The NFF is a full day conference devoted to connecting parents to education and services. A 501c (3) arm of our organization, devoted to connecting change agents and resources with families.

DADDY DAUGHTER DANCE

The event strengthens the relationship between fathers and father figures with their daughters, thus likely to decrease teen pregnancy, social dysfunction, substance abuse, and increase self-esteem in ladies of all ages.

Who We Are

Daddy University Inc. is a male parenting education company. We provide information, services, and products to support Fathers in overcoming barriers to positive parenting.

Our Mission

Daddy University is a Male Parenting Education Company. Our mission is to empower fathers by providing information, services, and products. Our goal is to improve the knowledge and skill set of male parents, thereby positively effecting children and families of all kinds. We use all available resources to create a holistic approach to develop fathers/ father-figures. By helping them understand the importance their role has on the future of their children, we impact generations to come.

Program Overview

We offer a variety of training programs to educate men on child development, pregnancy, maternity, child bearing, and quality time. Through male discussion groups and private consultation, DU provides guidance on addressing and overcoming obstacles such as child rearing, family involvement, legal issues, family court, and challenges around co-parenting. Discussion groups allow male parents to share in a safe environment; one that supports their efforts to become better fathers.

Program Information

We offer a variety of training programs educating men on pregnancy, child development, paternity, and quality time. We also provide consulting services to agencies and organizations to recruit Fathers into their program. We collaborate and assess the needs of a program, tailor a course(s) based on the outcome of the review, and then implement the program through instruction, coaching, and counseling.
